

SCHEDULE AT-A-GLANCE

Tuesday, June 15th Morning General Session
9:00 AM to 12:30 PM

Welcome from African American History Task Force

Former Senator Anthony "Tony" Hill, AAHTF Chair

Welcome from the Florida Department of Education

Dr. Dakeyan Cha' Dre' Graham
Executive Director of Independent Education and Parental Choice

AAHTF Summer Institute Overview

Dr. Bernadette Kelley-Brown, AAHTF Principal Investigator

Violin Performance

Fadhina V. Petit-Clair, Student, School for Advanced Studies
Miami-Dade College, Wolfson Campus

Exemplary Status Overview

Dr. Donna Austin, AAHTF Member - Exemplary Status Contact

Virtual Museum Visit

Florida A&M University
Meek-Eaton Black Archives Center & Museum
Dr. Darius J. Young, Interim Director

Keynote Presentation

"Black Inventors: Crafting 200 Years of Success"

Keith C. Holmes, Author
Chief Researcher & Founder of the Global Black Inventor Research Projects, Inc.

12:30 PM - 1:00 PM – BREAK

SCHEDULE AT-A-GLANCE

Tuesday, June 15th Afternoon General Session
1:00 PM to 3:30 PM

Organizing A Civil Rights Tour While Educating in North Florida

Wakulla Schools Civil Rights Trips & Student Panel
Mike Barwick, Former Principal, Wakulla High School
Sonia Clark-Rosier, Former Associate Dean, Wakulla High School
Miracle Potter, Student

"Ocoee: A Novel"

Myra Kinnie and Gail Waxman, Co-Authors
Sisters2, LLC

The Ocoee Massacre "Yesterday This Was Home"

Virtual Exhibit & Educator Resources
Shannon Elliston, Education Director
Orange County Regional History Center

Alachua Exemplary District Panel – Newberry Lynching Pilot Program

Dr. Elizabeth Washington, University of Florida
Dr. Catherine Atria, University of Florida
Jordan Marlow, Mayor of Newberry, Teacher, Newberry High School
Christopher Pearl, Teacher, Professional Academies
Jessica Morey, Teacher, Buchholz High School
Dr. Jon Rehm, Social Studies Curriculum Specialist ACPS

Closing Remarks

Former Senator Anthony "Tony" Hill, AAHTF Chair

SCHEDULE AT-A-GLANCE

Wednesday, June 16th Morning General Session
9:00 AM to 12:30 PM

Welcome

Former Senator Anthony "Tony" Hill, AAHTF Chair

"Little Fires Everywhere - The Power of Revolution"

Epiphany Lormil, Program Manager
bluapple Poetry Network

Education Support for African American History & Social Justice

EVERFI
Mathew Kirouac, Florida Director K-12

Why HBCU?

Dr. Elizabeth Bromery, Educator, Broward County Schools
Thewandar Houston, Educator, Broward County Schools

"Quiet Strong: First African American Explosive Ordnance Disposal Diver"

Cynthia Byrd Conner, Author

Keynote Presentation

Tell the Whole Story: African American History Education and the Future of Equality

Dr. Tameka Bradley Hobbs, Associate Provost for Academic Affairs and Associate Professor of History
Founding Director of the FMU Social Justice Institute
Florida Memorial University Social Justice Institute

12:30 PM - 1:00 PM – BREAK

SCHEDULE AT-A-GLANCE

Wednesday, June 16th Afternoon General Session
1:00 PM - 3:30 PM

Duval Exemplary District Panel – Exemplary, the Duval Way

Dr. Dana Kriznar, Deputy Superintendent
Kenneth Reddick, Executive Director of High Schools
Paula Renfro, Chief of Academic Services
Tracy Oliver, Assistant Principal, Landon Middle School
Sharlie Conklin, Supervisor of Social Studies
Tilena Robinson-Washington, Specialist

Legacy of the Moores

The Harry T. & Harriette V. Moore Cultural Center and Museum
Sonya Mallard, Center Coordinator

Engaging Students in Afrocentric Public History

Roberto Fernandez, III, Social Studies Teacher, Broward County Schools

Rosewood Revisited

Lizzie Robinson Jenkins, President & Founder
Real Rosewood Foundation

Upcoming Events: Fall 2021

Dr. Bernadette Kelley-Brown, AAHTF Principal Investigator

Closing Remarks

Former Senator Anthony "Tony" Hill, AAHTF Chair